

Dawn chorus hit a high note

Thirty seven local people pitched up on site for a dawn chorus walk around the cemetery on Saturday 26 April.

Bird expert John Boon shared his extensive knowledge of the feathered friends on the walk and the visitors tucked into a continental style breakfast in the Victorian Gothic revival chapel – probably before returning to their beds!

Money raised in donations at this event will go towards the cemetery Rejuven8 appeal.

